

A Day in the Life of Mill Avenue: a different show every hour

Mill Avenue District, the heart of Tempe, is alive with memorable people and inviting activities every hour of the day and night. Come along for a photographic stroll through the Mill Avenue District during the past year. Photographer Larry Mishler has created this photo-essay. It is open through January 25, 2007.